

Vignobles Pueyo
Saint-Émilion

Château Belregard-Figeac L'Excellence Saint-Émilion Grand Cru

Color	Red
Catégorie	Still wine
Pays	France / Bordeaux / Saint-Emilion
Density	Planting 5500 à 7000 vine-plant / ha
Average Age	Superior in 40 years old
Grape variety	Blending Merlot / Cabernet Franc / Cabernet Sauvignon-best plot selection
Terroir	Graves
Climat	Océanique
Vine working	Organic growing since 2010 (Ecocert), manual growing
Grape-Harvest	Selective hand picking,
Vinification	Small cement and stainless still tanks One week of cold pre-fermentation – wild yeast fermentation-one or two weeks of post-fermentation maceration
Aging	12 month in french oak barrels sweet warming, 1/3 new oak barrel, 1/3 one year old, 1/3 two years old,-six months tank aging before blending.
Fining and filtration	If necessary.
Bottling	At the property Bottle Patrimoine de BSN (fond gravé au logo Vignobles Pueyo) Cork first quality natural cork (Portugal) 49/24 mm Label Centaure ivory adhesive Bottle cap Aluminium personalized with logo «Vignobles Pueyo»
Présentation	Differents levels of presentation.
Potentiel de garde	Depending on the vintage and conditions of storage